MAY STOP AUTO RACING

ACCIDENTS AT LONG ISLAND
MEET PUTS DAMPER ON SPORT.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Board of Supervisors of Nassau County, Long Island will hold a special meeting tomorrow and consider the advisability of cancelling the permit for the grand prize automobile race, scheduled to be held over the Vanderbilt cup course on Oct. 15. Notwithstanding yesterday's list of four dead and more than twenty injured, incident to the Vanderbilt race, A. R. Parlington, general manager of the Long Island Motor Parkway, is authority for the statement that nothing but official interference shall stop the grand prize race.

Message From Oldfield.

Special drivers hooked to participate in the event have demanded more adequate policing of the course and tonight William Pickens, manager of Barney Oldfield, gave out the following message which he says Oldfield sent from Chicago:

"Withdraw my entry from grand prize race unless course will be guarded completely by troops. I am unwilling to risk my neck and car."

Oldfield follows with a severe arraignment of the management of the Vanderbilt race, whom, he says, "spent nothing to safeguard drivers and spectators."

The foregoing from Oldfield is somewhat cryptic, however, in that it was said in New York tonight that he had not been entered for the grand prize. It was at first understood that he would drive a Benz car, but the Benz management is said to have decided on Hemery, Hein and Cleane as their drivers.

Although several members of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors are undecided whether to attribute yesterday's fatalities to lack of policing or to carelessness of spectators, C. C. Painter of Oyster Bay, a member of the board who will offer a motion to cancel the permit tomorrow, issued the following statement tonight:

The killing and maiming at yesterday's automobile race seems to me to indicate the end of that kind of sport on the highways of Nassau county. If it does not, then I am much mistaken. The thing has gone far enough. Shall we wait for a wholesale killing before taking action?

It is my opinion that the license for the race of two weeks hence should be revoked and another of its kind never issued again.

Will Be Opposed.

Any movement to cancel the race will be bitterly fought by many residents of Nassau county, outside of those directly involved in the race. Automobiles have made money for the county in many ways and the races have always been favored by those who derive a benefit. By this it is argued that yesterday's casualty list, even though except on a large scale, was not so startling in view of the fact that within a few hours something like 100,000 or 200,000 people congregated in an area seething with automobiles on and off the course. Coming and going mostly from New York City, this great army moved about thirty miles at dawn and dusk respectively. It is pointed out that it is doubtful if this could be done anywhere with less injury and accident than occurred.

No more deaths of those injured had occurred up to tonight, but the condition of four is critical. These are: Thomas Miller, a spectator who was struck by the Pope-Hartford car; Charles Groumuel, the vobateur injured in an early morning smash; Henry Haggodon, a spectator who was struck by a Dawson car, and Mrs. D'Zubia, whose husband was killed in a crash going out to the course.

Harold Stone the young driver of the Columbia car, has gained strength although both legs are broken. He will probably recover. Louis Chevrolet's broken arm is doing nicely.

The race committee has taken charge of the bodies of the mechanicals, Miller and Bacon. They will be held pending advices from relatives.

NEPHEW OF SENATOR ALDRICH LIVES HERE

A few days ago C. S. Aldrich made a most interesting discovery regarding his ancestry. It turns out that he is a nephew of Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island and a cousin to Mrs. Joo D. Rockefeller, Jr. The discovery was made by B. A. Mason and was purely accidental. While on the way to Galveston Mr. Mason became acquainted with one M. G. Aldrich, who is connected with the Shreveport, Louisiana, Times. In course of conversation it developed that he is a half brother to our fellow townsman. The two have not seen each other in twenty-five years, and had completely lost track of one another. Mr. Aldrich got in touch with his brother and from a letter learned of his distinguished relations.

Mr. Aldrich's father came south from Rhode Island before the war and married in South Carolina. Later he enlisted in the Southern army and served throughout the struggle. Mr. Aldrich's mother died soon after the war and he was raised by her people, seeing very little of his father who lived elsewhere. His father told him little or nothing of his relatives and until a few days ago he was ignorant of his relationship. He expects a visit from his brother in the near future.

PANTS CONTAINED $2,500.00

Joe Hancock of Wapawucka is in jail here on a charge of stealing a pair of pants from J. F. Johnson of this place a few nights ago.

Johnson missed the pants from his room three or four nights ago and suspected Hancock who it is said was seemingly watching Johnson's effects very closely.

The officers pursued Hancock and found he had gone toward Wapawucka there he was caught upon information from the officers here. Saturday officer Will Johnson of Wapawucka brought the prisoner to Coalgate where he was met and conducted here by Deputy Bob Duncan. He was placed in jail and will have an examining trial Wednesday.

The pants Hancock is accused of taking is said to have been recovered from his possession by the officers who arrested him at Wapawucka, and contained $2500 in notes and checks. It is not thought that Hancock knew that the pants contained anything of value, and all are held by the officers here until after the examining trial.

JIM MILLER'S SON SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Deputy Sheriff Taylor came in from Snyder Sunday night, bringing with him Bill Miller and turned him over to Transfer Agent John Luther who departed with his man for the penitentiary at Rusk on the same train, the midnight Texas & Pacific eastbound.

Miller is a son of J. B. Miller, who was lynched in an Oklahoma town about a year ago, together with three confederates in the crime of murder.

The son is twenty-three years of age and was convicted of cutting the telephone wires near Snyder and tapping the same for purposes of looting a bank at Snyder of several hundred dollars, but the plan failed. Miller had an accomplice at one end of the line, who was working with him in the smooth game, but the bank "caught on" and saved itself much money thereby.

The confederate was to go to the bank and call up the Sweetwater bank asking if a check of a certain man was good and was to receive an answer from the confederate, who was tapping the wire, to the effect that it was all right—to let the check be cashed.

Deputy Sheriff Taylor says the boy is a tough customer and has been in many jails in Texas and other states.

He is a bad hombre and had to be closely watched, as he had a record of escapes behind him that would make an older criminal noted.

Mr. Luther chained Miller to Bill Miller, the Anson negro murderer and carried them both on to headquarters where they will be put to work for the state, the negro for life and Miller for two years.—Abilene Morning News

Remarkable Escape.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 2.—Peter Buhfor, a laborer, was hurled into the air with several arms of broken stone by the explosion of an 85 stick of giant powder while blasting in North Division street here, sustaining only a slight scratch on the fourth finger of his left hand. He was standing directly over the charge when the blast was made. Workmen on the scene believed the man had been blown to pieces, but in a few moments Buhfor emerged from the debris, shook himself and asked to be taken to his home. He was sent to the emergency hospital, where Steward Dare and two city physicians made a thorough examination, but found only the abrasion on the finger. Buhfor returned to work in an hour, none the worse for his experience. Afterward he said that the peculiar sensation of his hurried flight through space was the sound of sweet music and a display of brilliant colors. However, he added, he does not believe he lost consciousness from start to finish.

Miss Mittie Harringer, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. McKeown, Miss Jessie Rodgers and Mrs. W. A. Alexander were among the Adults who attended the fair yesterday.

INJUNCTION ISSUED AGAINST NEW COUNTY

Not to be daunted by the decision of District Judge T. H. holding that he had no jurisdiction in the matter of issuing a restraining order against the officials of the new county of Swanson, to keep the records of Kiowa county intact, and not to be transferred for the new district at this time.

Saturday morning a telegram was received in Hobart, from County Attorney Standeven stating that the supreme court of the state had issued a restraining order against all the officers of Swanson county from demanding or receiving the records, books taxes or property from Kiowa county, pending a final decision of the supreme court.

This will effectively tie up the work of the new county officers, until the case passes through all the courts and is finally determined if the county can legally exist.

SUNDAY PROGRAM AT THE NORMAL

Yesterday the first of a series of Sunday afternoon meetings was held at the normal auditorium. A fair sized audience was present, but that big auditorium is capable of holding many more than were present.

The first number on the program was a quartet by Messrs. Hardin, Bowman, Guest and Walters. These men are singers of great power and they fully maintained their reputations. They were followed by Judge A. M. Croxton who made a strong appeal to the young people. Mrs. Ritch favored the audience with a violin solo with Miss Anderson as piano accompanist. Mrs. Ritch is a musician of exceptional ability and her rendition was especially well received.

A reading by Mrs. McGuire, the talented teacher of expression, added much to the entertainment of the audience. Miss Van Werner, teacher of vocal music of the normal, rendered a solo that was a delight to all hearers. She is a comparatively new arrival here, but her reputation as a musician is already fully established. The closing number on the program was an address by Judge Barton on the subject "Were I a School Boy Again." The judge is earnestly engaged in the boy problem and always has something worth hearing when dealing with the subject.

After the close of the program the visitors were invited to inspect the building and a large number who had not been through it before availed themselves of the opportunity.

Aaron Couch returned from Bryan yesterday where he went to visit his sister Saturday.

OKLAHOMA CENTRAL SOON TO BE SOLD.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 1.—The Oklahoma Central railroad will probably be sold at receiver's sale at Ardmore, October 31. Judge R. E. Campbell of the federal court of the Eastern Oklahoma district has announced that a hearing of the petition of the Western Trust Company and Savings bank, asking for the sale under a deed of trust, and it is generally believed that the petition will be granted.

The Oklahoma Central has been in the hands of a receiver for nearly two years. It was to consummate the sale of this particular piece of property to the Santa Fe that a special election to repeal article 9, section 9, of the Oklahoma constitution, was called. The election failed and this deal was called off.

HOW EDITORS GET RICH

It is not good policy to give business secrets away, but as many people wonder how editors get rich
so quick we give out the following information remarks the Paxton (Ill.) Register, hoping that every one of our readers will not take advantage of this and engage in the newspaper business.

A fellow terming himself "Grand-editions Forecaster" located at St.
Louis, offers to furnish us a lot of poetry and other silly stuff, if we will only run an advertisement in A Kansas real estate firm will
A fellow out west wants us to do a lot of advertising for him for noting, and he brings results he may become a customer.

A gun firm wants us to run $10
worth of advertising and then send them $10 in exchange for a shotgun. When a gun would retail at about $6.

For running $17 worth of locals
we can get a $1 magazine telling how to do dressmaking at home.

By running $50 worth of advertising and sending $25 to an Ada City firm, we will be given a deed to a lot. When the tide is in the lot stands six feet under water.
The Register each week
give us a deed to a lot 21 by 50 feet for $10 worth of advertising and $25 in cash. We wrote to a fellow who knew of the lots offered and he replied that they had no cash value, but a trading value of about $5.

If we can run a column without
of a doings to be held in North Dakota this fall, amounting to about $7, we will be sent two $1 tickets.
Our railroad fare up there and back
for two, would be about $60.

We can have almost any Chicago daily paper sent us free. The subscription rate is $4, but all we have to do is run $36 worth of locals.

For $40 worth of advertising and $25 cash we can own a bicycle. The wheel sells at just $12. About one dozen firms are wanting to give us shares in gold mines for advertising. A nursery firm will send us a 25 cent rosebush for only five dollars' worth of advertising. For running a six-inch advertising for one year we get a gross of pills.

WHERE DID IT COME FROM?

The Oklahoma City Times and other republican papers are making a great howl about a campaign fund
they claim the democrats have in their coffers. The object seems to be to create discord among the democratic papers of the state by asserting that the major portion of this fund will go to the two or three big papers of the state and the little editors will be expected to carry on the campaign from a spirit of patriotism. Of course no thinking man will give this charge a serious thought. Where could such a fund come from? Is it likely that the railroads that have been in litigation with the administration ever since it took the reins of government are putting money into the democratic treasury? Hardly. Is there any reason to think that the whiskey and brewery interests are putting up when both the present administration and the next one are in favor of prohibition? They are not in the habit of doing things for the sake of sweet charity. No, there is no foundation for this rot. The democratic party is not a party of the corporations and millionaires. It must depend on the rank and file for its campaign funds and support. The democrats have made good and will receive a strong indorsement from the people in November.

It is extremely amusing to see the republicans try to rake up something that they can use to advantage in the present campaign. Their papers have been vilifying Haskell and his administration from the day the democrats took charge of the state government, every charge has fallen so flat that they now find themselves on the battle line with no ammunition. The trouble is that they were too reckless in their firing.
They wasted their ammunition before
the real battle began.

Walter Wellman, the Chicago newspaper correspondent, rivals Roosevelt and Bryan when it comes to devising ways of keeping in the limelight. Two or three times he created some talk by attempting to make the trip to the north pole via airship.
Peary and Cook beat him there, or at least they said they did, and now Walter says he is going to sail across the Atlantic in his air craft. We are of the opinion that it will wind up like his north pole trips, just a lot of hot air and a convenient accident
to the balloon.

Mrs. Chas. Raines of Muskogee,
who has been visiting her mother,
Mrs. T. L. Rolland, has returned home.

J. F. Jackson,

WHY PRICES HAVE INCREASED

By Clyde H. Tavenner.

Washington, Oct. 1.—When the Payne-Aldrich bill was before the senate, blind Senator Tom P. Gore of Oklahoma stated his reputation that if the measure was passed extensive prices would follow.

The prophecy was fulfilled. Average prices rose more than 17 per cent from June to December, 1909. The prices of steel trust common stock
more than doubled in six months in 1909.

It is the history of all protectionist countries that tariff revision under means increased prices. It is not generally realized how rapidly
the price of tariff-protected articles
rose after the passage of the Dingley law in 1897. From July 1, 1897, to January 1, 1900, the first three years following the Dingley law, the cost of living advanced 31 per cent
or at the rate of 9 per cent a year.
More trusts were formed during this than during any other similar period
in our history.

The price of wire nails rose from $1.36 a keg, in August, 1898, to $3.52, in December, 1899—160 per cent in 16 months.

The price of barb wire rose from $1.65 per 100 pounds, in August, 1897,
to $4.13, in December, 1899—150 per cent in 2 years.

The price of window glass rose from $1.75 a box, in April, 1887, to $4.50, in April, 1901—175 per cent in 14 years.

The Dingley tariff made the trusts,
and the trusts put up the prices.
But few, if any, trusts were formed
during the three years of the comparatively low duties of the Wilson
bill.

When the German government introduced its tariff law in 1902, it published an explanation which contained the frank statement that "inland prices are raised, so far as a consideration of the circumstances of the last ten years will allow us to judge, in proportion to the duties."

In France, Italy, and some other European countries a part of the municipal revenue is raised by duties on goods entering the towns. At the gates of such towns there is an official who collect this tax, and it is found that the difference in prices of articles purchased outside of the towns and within the towns is in nearly every instance exactly the amount of the duty. The same happens in trade between nations.

The reason the sugar trust, the steel trust, the lumber trust and the harvester trust are willing to contribute large sums to the campaign
funds of President Taft and republican candidates for congress and are unwilling to contribute to the funds of democratic candidates, is that the republican party is the party of excessive protection. Tariff revision upward means increased prices, and the tariff trusts know that they can collect from the people in new profits whatever sums they may invest in the republican campaign funds.

OR KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

Will Surely Stop That Cough.

W. L. Byrd Camp Meets.

The members of the W. L. Byrd Camp No 1545 met Sunday afternoon and received a good many new members as well as a large number of names of ex-Confederates throughout the county who desire membership. The camp passed resolutions thanking J. W. Davis for taking a collection and liquidating the debt incurred Saturday and those who contributed to this also. Another matter considered and discussed was that of sending delegates to reunions and places where so ever the Confederates may have a day.

The rumor that their comrade C. C. Perry was dead was found to be without foundation.

Ada Cotton Market.

Cotton has sold today as high as 13.60 seed cotton has brought 4.60 and cotton seed $20.00 per ton. From this it will be seen that a 500 pound bale is bringing about $78.00. Stonewall Hill states that nearly 3000 bales have been marketed to date. This is almost half as much as was sold here all last season and Mr. Hill thinks there is no doubt about the crops for this season amounting to between 5000 and 9000 bales.

Jinks Her Wanders, Boy.

Mrs. A. C. Horn of Norman is here this morning en route to Roff where she goes to take her 3 year old boy back from the last run away from home three weeks ago today and had not been heard of by the mother until a day or two ago when she received a phone message from Roff saying the youngster was there and was being held by the officers to await her arrival. Though she said that she had been nearly frantic of distress since her son left Mrs. Horn was in a happier state of mind this morning.

Mrs. Martin Better.

Miss Mollie Jerriegan who has been receiving telegrams of information day by day relative to the condition of her sister Mrs. Dr. Martin of Bowling Green Ky. who lately underwent a medical operation is now assured that Mrs. Martin is now about passed from danger. Dr. and Mrs. Martin formerly resided in Ada.

C. I. Warren Best Rifle Shot.

C. I. Warren won the 22 caliber Walrus repeating rifle offered as a prize by the Meadows and Ross shooting gallery last week for the best shot. Warren made a score of 26 out of a possible 30. C. I. Evans and R. C. Roland were close seconds each scoring 21.

A Kilpatrick foreman of the Choctaw Cotton Oil company gin at W. L. Lunka came down yesterday to visit his family. He reports 600 bales of cotton ginned these up to the present but they expect to get 6000 before the season is over.

W. C. Seabolt of Quanton who has been visiting his son W. W. Seabolt has returned home.

VILLAGERS WROUGHT UP BY VOICE FROM GRAVE

Mysterious Sounds Had Even the Most Stout-Hearted Guessing and Shivering—Finally Explained.

Bekton, Texas has just emerged from a ghost scare. It had been guessing and shivering and getting home early at night while it lasted but like all ghost scares there was finally found a material explanation of the blood-rudling phenomena.

The ghost operated in one of the cemeteries near that town. Its particular habitat was an old grave, sunk in and neglected. From that mournful hole there were heard strange sounds proceeding and even intelligible words would issue forth in horrifying tones. The first ones to make the discovery told others and for several nights, there were ghost parties and individuals to go to the place and have their goose bumps erected and their superstitious organ brought into active play. The sounds were there and even daylight investigations failed to reveal any explanation for same, in substance. Bold hearts came back quailed and it had begun to be believed that at least a real communication with spirits had been established and the invitation to the Society of psychical research was just about to be forwarded with authenticated accounts of a real ghost when some projecting person at last found the whenceness of the why fore Bekton folks are unlocking their doors again and letting the night breezes come through the screens. They are laughing deeper than the diaphragm once again, and they are just positively sure that never again until the next time, will they ever be affected by the stories of ghosts and haunts. Announcements of night entertainments are again made.

The Bekton News publishes, in an inferential way, leading the reader to figure out the possibilities of the situation, the expose as follows:

"Quite a number of people continue to go out to hear the ghost talk, and some of them linger near the spot for quite a while, while others come back quick and in a hurry. It is a little strange what a talk and excited curiosity can be created in a place by about fifty feet of iron pipe laid a few inches under ground with an unprovided old grave at one end of it and a mischievous boy or boys hidden in the brush at the other end to talk through the pipe can work up. They did it all right and have had their fun and lots of it, and while a few have been pretty badly scared nothing serious has happened."

Hurst Buys Newspaper.

Holdenville, Okla. Oct. 1.—Former State Senator Homer S. Hurst, one of the backers of the Citizens Traction company in Oklahoma City, is now owner of the only democratic newspaper in Hughes county. Senator Hurst Friday purchased the Holdenville Times and consolidated it with his Holdenville Democrat, under the new name of Times-Democrat. Charles A. Oliver will continue as editor and manager of the paper.

W. O. Adams of Danglefield, Tex. was visiting friends in the city yesterday and today he reports a continued drought in his part of Texas, there having been no rain since the first of June.

You appreciate how uncomfortable the kitchen is these warm days? It will be worse as you advance further in the summer. Why not use electricity and be cool? You can cook, bake, operate your sewing machine, wash and iron. In fact, there is nothing which cannot be accomplished with electricity that is accomplished by either gas or an ordinary range. It is odorless, no heat, no smoke simply press the button and we do the rest.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

"The Cross Stood Between Jesus and the World's Redemption and the Cross Stands Between Man and Redemption."

Taking for his theme, "The Way of the Cross" and reading from Matt 16:21 and Cor. 1:8 Rev. Anderson held the close attention of a large and appreciative congregation at last night's services and said in part:

A traveler coming from his home in the country to Jerusalem was told that the road led by way of the place of a skull which is called Calvary—the way of the Cross. "You can only reach Jerusalem by that way." The Cross stood between Jesus and the world's redemption and the cross stands between man and his redemption. If the world comes to Jerusalem which is above it will be by the way of Calvary's cross.

Let men philosophize as they may, and chase after sky-rocket religion but the cross of Christ is the only thing that has and will lift the world, bring paved streets where was the jungle and normals where was abject ignorance.

Jesus was fully conscious of the place of the cross in the saving of the world. The temple will built in three days if torn down" says he. The grain must die if it is to be fruitful. "I must be lifted up." Yes, its shadow fell athwart His path early.

The cross with its human freight is the magnet of the gospel. Do you want to see sacrifice? The cross is the answer. Would you know love? Behold God's son on Calvary. The cross represents concreteness. There God is in the flesh. There they pierce divinity. There human weakness cries, "I thirst." There we see a unique, satisfying blending of the human and the divine.

The Cross Means Only Salvation.

The cross looks to the world and the world must look to the cross. Its replica must be reproduced in our lives. How beautiful is this carried out in conversion. Man looking at the cross, cries out "Here I today, O God, resign my will to thine, here on bended knees and with broken and contrite heart I acknowledge my sin. As thou hast been crucified, so crucify I myself today. This old body of sin shall here and be nailed to the cross." Ah my friends that's repentance, that's crucifying self and then as Paul says in Roman 6, we bury the old man, the crucified man in the beautiful act of immersion "buried with Him by immersion," and raised up from the watery grave as because forth, raised with Him, to walk in a new life. A life henceforth with our affections on things above. (Col 3:1-3.)

That's conversion. What a beautiful setting forth of the facts of the gospel!

The cross alone can lift a man from negatives and make it alone will satisfy the heart of a man who stands by the cross and the best dieters. A summer home is all right for fair weather, but it will not stand the chilly weather. So speculation in new doctrines and trust in morality may please man for a brief little summer, but the cross of Jesus alone is safe in all the changing scenes of life.

The cross alone will restore in man God's image. Genius may with a poem, capital may write a million dollar check, sovereignty may stamp an eagle and make the metal worth $20. Skill may turn a little steel worth $2 into watch springs worth $1000, but these can't do anything for making a man anew. Here's a man with heart impure, conscience seared, mind murky, will crippled, an outcast in society. I see him made anew in possession of his faculties, a Jerry McAuley or a Philipian jailer. What did it? Skill? Sovereignty? Art? Genius? No, my friend it's the work of the cross. God can take a prostrated life and make it by the power of the cross, the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit. Turning old rags into fine linen, watermarked, and fit for a king's stationery is not comparable to what God's son on Calvary can do for fallen humanity. Mixed up in every man is some good which God appeals to. He can burn all the slag out of your life and present you to himself the pure metal.

Which?

Paul says the cross is a Savor of life or death. Its to those who perish, foolishness, to those who are saved by the power of God. Which for you?

"You'll never get sight of the gates of light.

If the way of the cross is missed."

THE LATE J. B. WALL.

Mrs. Wall Will Go to Lawton and Complete His Contracts There.

The remains of J. B. Wall were laid to rest in Rose Hill Cemetery Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the residence of Dr. J. G. Abernathy on North Washington street by Dr. J. M. Gross, president of Hargrove College.

Mr. Wall died Thursday in a sanitarium in Oklahoma City of hemorrhage of the stomach, caused from a gastric ulcer. Deceased is survived by a widow and five children.

J. B. Wall came to this city in the early days of its history, he had lent his aid to the building of every enterprise in the city. His business history is closely interwoven with the commercial history of the town. His first venture was in the shoe business and he made a success. From the shoe store to the drug business was the next step, and he succeeded in building up a good business and from here he went to Ada, where he organized and became its first president, the Texas Trading Company, the biggest institution in that town.

As president of the Ardmore Fair Association, J. B. Wall abundantly proved his business ingenuity and his friendship for his adopted city.

He made a success of that enterprise and which no other person has been able to do.

Mrs. Wall, who is the daughter of the late Dr. J. W. Smith, one of the best loved men ever in Ardmore, has the sympathy of a vast number of close friends in her bereavement. Mrs. Wall is one of the prominent club women in Oklahoma and enjoys a wide acquaintance over the state. She received yesterday many expressions of condolence from different portions of the state.

Mrs. Wall will go to Lawton to complete the contracts which Mr. Wall had made with the business men of that city. The deceased had time deposits that were not subject to check in sufficient quantity to meet every obligation at Lawton and Mrs. Wall is in position to see that the business started there is carried out according to all agreements entered into by Mr. Wall—Ardmoreite.

DALLAS NEWS ANNIVERSARY EDITION.

The Dallas News celebrated its twenty-fifth birthday Saturday by issuing a seventy-two page edition which is one of the best we ever saw. From an historical standpoint it is a valuable document, dealing, as it does, with the early days of the city and state and bringing it all down to date. Its story of the growth of Dallas is extremely interesting and shows what any town can do by hustling and never for a moment losing its grip. The News has kept pace with the growth of the city and state and has always been a most important factor in the growth of both. We wish the great Texas daily many happy returns.
